

Invitation

Join us in Poland
during the World University Championships in 2012

Start in Lodz...

DATE 14th April 2012

LOCATION green, large and beautiful park in the centre of Lodz, including sport venue and modern sport hall with all facilities

CITY Lodz, one of the biggest cities in Poland. Located in the country centre, in the past – capital of industry and factories. Now capital of university sport and culture area

ACCOMMODATION new student dormitories near Technical University of Lodz in the city centre

SUPERVISION The Mayor and the Municipality of the city Lodz

PREVIOUS SPORTS EVENTS IN LODZ World Volleyball League, Europe Championship in Volleyball and Basketball, World University Championships in Bridge 2008

ZAKOPANE

... finish in Zakopane

DATE from 18th to 21st December 2012

LOCATION modern, professional and illuminated artificially frozen speed skating track facility located near the city centre

CITY Zakopane – the largest city located in the vicinity of the Tatra Mountains, tourist and cultural area, a winter sports resort called the winter capital of Poland

ACCOMMODATION Hotel COS Zakopane (Hotel Main Sport Centre) located next to the Speed Skating Arena

SUPERVISION The Mayor and the Municipality of the city Zakopane

PREVIOUS SPORTS EVENTS IN ZAKOPANE Winter Universiade (1993, 2001), Ski Jumping World Cup (every year), Speed Skating Junior Championships 2009

AZS in Poland

The oldest and the biggest university sports organization in Europe

AZS is active since over 100 years

Over 50.000 active AZS members

Over 250 active clubs operating within public and non public universities

20 percent of the Polish national teams are members of AZS;
within olimpic medalists, European and world championships medalists

AZS is organiser and host of many European and world university championships, two times organized Winter Universiades in Zakopane (1993, 2001)

AZS has its own university sport competition system

AZS has its own university sport facilities